Trade balance recorded a deficit of USD 5.79 billion during July-October, 2017-18 as compared to the deficit of USD 2.77 billion during July-October, 2016-17. Despite financial account surpluses of USD 2.67 billion, current account balance contributed to a deficit in overall balances during July-October, 2017-18. The deficit in current account was mainly due to high import payables along with the shortfall in the primary income and income from services.
